The Elks' Bazaar.

The army was crowded with a good-natured throng last night when the Elks marched into the hall to open their great bazaar and flower carnival. All present expressed surprise and pleasure at the beauty of the decorations and the wonderful displays upon the many booths. The feature of the first night was the competitive drill by a team from the Alexandria Light Infantry under the command of Capt. Murphy. To the winner, Richard Talbot, a handsome gold medal was presented by the committee. Later in the evening the drawing for the first U. S. $100 gold bond took place, and the lucky number, 287, was held by Mrs. C. B. Marshall. A gold bond will be disposed of in this manner each night at 10:30. Fine music and an interesting programme is promised for tonight, it being the object of those in charge to increase the interest in the carnival progresses. Voting will begin tonight for a handsome loving cup to be given the most popular Odd Fellow in the city. Among those who have started in this race with a large number of votes are Messrs. P. M. Bradshaw, D. R. Stansbury, John Beach and Frank Elliott.

Wedding.

Mr. Whitman Rathbone Smith, of Fort Williams, Out, and Miss Rebekah Harvey Barrett, daughter of Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of this city, will be married at St. Paul's Church at 8 o'clock tonight.

The church has been beautifully decorated by the friends of the bride-elect and the wedding will be one of the prettiest of the season. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. P. P. Phillips and the groom's best man will be Mr. James McDonald, of New York. The bride's maid of honor will be her sister, Miss Lillie Barrett, and the bridesmaids, Misses Lucy Douglas, Besse Herbert, Priscilla Dodson, Anna Well, Tibbie Waller and Kitte Barrett. The ushers will be Messrs. Taylor Burke, Harry Beverley, Richard Chichester, Charles Barrett, James S. Douglas and Mr. Tempest, the latter of Canada. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the residence of the bride's mother on Duke street and later Mr. and Mrs. Smith will leave on their bridal trip.

Ankle Injured.

Engineer Robert Purvis, of the Southern Railway, had one of his ankles seriously injured yesterday afternoon in the plant in this city. Mr. Purvis, who is a hostler, was in charge of a light passenger engine which was proceeding toward the union depot when two freight cars broke loose from a train some distance west and started on the down grade toward the engine. Mr. Purvis jumped from the engine in order to escape the result of the collision, and in doing so seriously injured one of his ankles. The ears struck the engine, but they were more damaged than the locomotive. The injured man was carried to the Alexandria Hospital.

After Delinquents.

The police are after persons who are charged with conducting business without licenses, and several delinquents were arraigned before Justice Caton in the police court this morning to show cause why they should not be fined. Under existing laws a number of occupations are taxed which heretofore required no license. Those who pay for the required permission to transact business naturally protest against others, who have no licenses, entering into competition with them. The justice ordered some of the delinquents to take out licenses and dismissed the charges against others.

Luna Park.

Luna Park, the new summer resort, will be opened to the public on the 23rd instant. All the modern amusement devices will be installed at this place and a fine band of music will be in attendance. This park is situated at four-mile run, on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, equidistant from Alexandria and Washington, and it will doubtless soon become one of the most popular resorts in this vicinity. Trains will arrive and depart at short intervals, and people living in either city can reach the park in a few minutes' time and return home at almost any hour up to midnight.

Primary Election.

The primary election in the third ward today has been devoid of animation. Mr. J. R. N. Curtin, the present member of the Board of Alderman, has no opposition but Mr. J. F. Birrell is a contestant with W. H. Hellmuth and F. J. Pollard for the Common Council. The last two named are now representing the third ward in lower board. Up to 3:30 o'clock but 24 votes had been cast.

Mrs. George Johnston has gone to Virginia Beach to spend a few weeks. She was accompanied by her nephew, Dr. Llewellyn Powell.

The Board of Visitors to Mt. Vernon, of which Mr. C. B. Marshall of this city is a member, paid an official visit there today. Gov. Swanson was unable to be present.

Police Commissioners.

As was stated in the Gazette several days ago, the Board of Police Commissioners have adjourned subject to the call of the Mayor. It is said that the board desire to secure additional evidence against certain officers who have been charged with dereliction of duty, together with violations of certain rules, and other meetings will be held in the near future.

The warm weather yesterday was followed at the close of the day by a fresh northeasterly wind and cloudy conditions. The temperature fell during the night, and this morning the weather was cool and threatening.
